Highest Tobacco Price.

A number of The News' exchanges commented on the recent sale of loose leaf tobacco at 40 and 42 cents on the Lexington market, stating that this was the record price for white Burley. The veteran editor, Mr. John Zollar, of the Mt. Olivet Tribune-Democrat, who has a remarkably long memory, says that a hoghead sold on the Cincinnati market some forty years ago at $1.25 per pound. In the summer of 1875 two growers of Robertson county sold fifty hogheads at an average of 40 cents per pound and some leaf of the lot brought as high as fifty cents. As the 1909 crop of Burley is of very fine texture, twenty cents per pound would not be an unreasonable price in the opinion of the sage of old Robertson.

A Narrow Escape.

Mrs. Fanniebell Sutherland narrowly escaped asphyxiation from gas on Saturday night and is yet suffering from the effects. In the Sutherland home an instantaneous gas heater is used in the bath room which sprung a leak, Mrs. Sutherland inhaling the gas until unconscious. Her father, Mr. H. Clay Hutchcraft, found her in time to revive her.

The Paris Milling Co.

Fashionable Society Event.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hall entertained Friday evening with a cotillon at Elks Hall in honor of Mrs. John Young Brown, Jr., and Miss Cora South Brown, of St. Louis, who have been their popular guests for a week.

The ball room was a bower of Southern smilax, palms, ferns and pink carnations and roses. The windows were draped in soft mull curtains over which hung graceful ropes of smilax. The balcony rail was entwined with smilax and roses with a huge swinging basket of Boston ferns as a centerpiece, directly under the chandelier. Throughout the spacious room quantities of smilax adorned arches, door and chandeliers with their many electric lights with pink shades all of which made a scene just in comparison to the sweet young guest of honor who was radiantly beautiful in a gown of soft gray with a tunic of silver cloth.

Behind a screen of palms, ferns and pedestals holding jardiniers of dozens of fragrant carnations, Smittie's band played a program of lovely music.

At midnight a delicious supper of salad, ham, beaten biscuit, coffee, and individual ices and cakes was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall received the guests assisted by Mrs. Brown, Miss Brown, Mr. and Mrs. James Duncan Bell, Mr. William Taylor and Mr. Quincy Ward.

Mrs. Hall was very handsome in an exquisite gown of embroidered net with yellow trimmings. Mrs. Brown was lovely in an imported gown of yellow satin with tunic of net embroidered in pearls. Mrs. Bell wore a becoming gown of yellow messaline with pearl trimmings. Miss Brown was beautiful in a soft gray gown with tunic of silver cloth.

The cotillon was very gracefully led by Miss Brown assisted by Mr. Wm. Taylor. Several beautiful figures and marches were artistically carried out.

In the first honored couples were Mr. Wm. Taylor and Miss Brown, Mr. James Clay and Miss Martha Waller, Mr. Gaines and Miss Martha Ferguson, Mr. J. W. Waller and Miss Laura Clay. Others dancing were Mr. and Mrs. Sidney G. Clay, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ferguson, Mr. J. Q. Ward and Mrs. John Young Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Hampton Whitley, Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. John Yerkes, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Buckner, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Varden, Mr. Joe Mitchell and Miss Helen Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Allen, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Swift Champ, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Taylor, Mr. James Russel and Miss Nan Wilson, Mr. James Dodge and Miss Lorine Butler, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Fithian, Dr. Chas. Daugherty and Miss Ollie Butler, Mr. Bob Lyons and Miss Frances Johnson, Mr. George Williams Clay and Miss Katherine Davis, Mr. Clay Sutherland and Miss Carolyn Roseberry, Mr. White Varden and Miss Mary Lyle, Mr. Will K. Ferguson and Miss Amelia Leer, Mr. Robert Ferguson and Miss Lafferty, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kenney, Mr. Robert Lyne and Miss Fannie Johnson, Mr. Hugh Ferguson and Miss Rachel Wiggins, Mr. John Davis and Miss Mary Fithian Hutchcraft, Mr. Jim Buckner and Miss Matilda Alexander, Mr. Jim Woodford and Miss Elizabeth Embry, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Woodford, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Bell, Mr. Amos Turney and Miss Edna Earle Hinton, Mr. Oscar Hinton and Miss Helen Hutchcraft, Mr. C. A. McMillan and Miss Edna Turney, Miss Ruth Morgan and Mr. Harry Hooton, Miss Elizabeth Steele and Mr. Fay Ardrey, Miss Mary Woodford and Mr. Woodford Buckner, Mr. John Spears, Mr. John Davis, Sr., Mr. Joseph Gaines, Mr. William Woodford and Mr. Earl Ferguson.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Vol Ferguson, Mrs. Thompson Tarr, Mrs. J. E. Cantrill, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Henry Clay, Sr., Mrs. Cassius M. Clay, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Vansant, Mr. John Roberts, Miss Margaret Ferguson, Miss Bessie Holladay, Mrs. B. Renick.

Recovering from Injury.

Deputy Sheriff Ernest Martin, who was wounded several weeks ago by the accidental discharge of his revolver in the grocery store of his brother, Walter Martin, in this city, is rapidly recovering from his injury and is able to be out.

Paris Boy Honored.

Friends of Reuben B. Hutchcraft, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hutchcraft, of this city, will be interested to hear of his election as President of the Democratic Club, of Harvard University. He is a popular Kentuckian and the honor bestowed is pleasing news to all who know him here. He was honor man at graduation of the class of 1907 at Transylvania University. His election resulted in an overwhelming defeat of his opponent, Joseph J. Donahue, of Boston. Mr. Hutchcraft received 79 votes; Mr. Donahue, 41.

There were several very brilliant speeches made just prior to the nomination. Mr. Hutchcraft seemed to be the favorite by such strong odds that his success was apparent before the ballot was cast. His work in the last Boston municipal campaign in which he made an extensive canvass in the interest of James J. Storrow against the celebrated "Honey Fitz" seemed to carry great weight with Harvard men.

A place on the editorial staff of the Harvard Law Review was recently assigned to Mr. Hutchcraft. This recognition only comes to men of marked ability and who have maintained a very high average in class work.

It was a notable fact that some ten Southern men, all from Southern colleges, were on hand to support the winning candidate.
